

L2: Citizenship - Head Start Activities

What
Citizenship
is all about

Dear Students,

Welcome to your Head Start Activities for L2: Citizenship. Citizenship Education is a subject that helps students understand their rights, responsibilities, and role in society. It teaches important topics such as democracy, laws, government, human rights, diversity, and community participation. This booklet is designed to aid you in beginning your journey in developing your critical thinking, communication, and decision-making skills. We look forward to working with you from September.

Mr S. Newman, Head of Citizenship
